

BACK OF THE MOUNTAIN

A Perfect Team

By Bernadette Chiamonte-Brown

I spotted these Amish logging horses working in Rutland Township, and asked the loggers if I could photograph their horses. They consented, with the stipulation that they not also be photographed. I reassured them that I would abide by their wishes, and they turned their backs to me so I wouldn't see their faces. In the meantime, the horses stood perfectly still for their portrait!