

GRAND STRANDING

Since 1990, The Bead Merchant has kept Tulsans fully stocked with all the beautiful beads, bits, and baubles they could ever need.

For those seeking strands of iridized peach moonstones, blue goldstones, or dragon skin agates, THE BEAD MERCHANT has those and thousands more options for home jewelers. In addition to supplying findings, chains, and everything else necessary for crafting a piece of wearable art, owner Susanne Barnard also offers classes—for groups or one-on-one—to help customers learn how to make the best of their tiny treasures.
